

Happy New Year!

I am offering a Middle School Mock Trial Program for grades 6- 8. Could you please post the below information on your websites.

Middle School Mock Trial Program

Grades: 6 - 8

Dates: 1/25, 2/1, 2/8, 2/15, 2/22(no class), 3/1, 3/8, 3/15, 3/22, 3/29 (Lizzy Borden Inn visit) 4/5, 4/12 (TRIAL)

Location: Emerson Middle School

This year Mock Trial students in grades 6, 7 and 8 will explore the case of LIZZIE BORDEN! Participants will role play lawyers and witnesses as they re-try Lizzie Borden in this Civil Case. The team will research, explore and investigate the facts of the case as they prepare for trial. The team's research will include a visit to the Lizzie Borden Inn to gather evidence. The culminating event will be the Civil Trial presentation at the Ayer Courthouse.

Read more..

Dear Gentlemen,

Can you please have the Middle School Mock Trial registration information posted on your websites? Thank you.

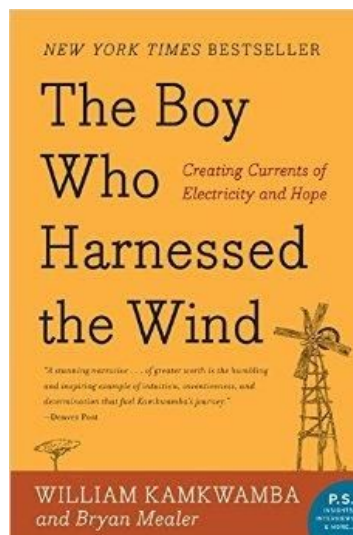

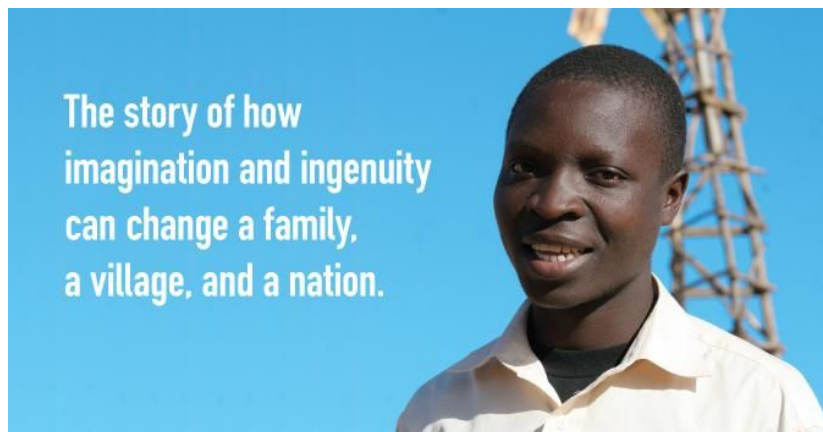

Middle School Mock Trial Opportunity

Participants will role play lawyers and witnesses as they re-try Lizzie Borden in this Civil Case. The team will research, explore and investigate the facts of the case as they prepare for trial...

Read more

Tuesday, January 17th at 7pm
Nashoba Regional High School Auditorium

WILLIAM KAMKWAMBA

Author of

“THE BOY WHO HARNESSSED THE WIND”

WILL BE SPEAKING about his book, his experiences growing up in rural Malawi and about the current drought induced famine there.

Bring your copy of his book and get it autographed for free!

Used copies of his book will be on sale for autograph:

$50.00 for adults

$30.00 for students

All proceeds will go to help alleviate the current famine and prevent future famines in Malawi. Admission is free. Donations will be accepted.

Sponsored by Bridges to Malawi (bridgestomalawi.org) and Nashoba Interact